Thursday, November 14, 2019 | 12:15 p.m.

Harry West Conference Room

ARC Offices, 229 Peachtree Street NE Suite 100 Atlanta, Georgia 30303

1. Welcome, Acceptance of 10/10/19 CRC Meeting Summary, Public Comment period Mark Mathews, Chair
2. Regional Transportation Demand Management (TDM) Update Rosalind Tucker, ARC
With over 2.7 million commuters daily in the Atlanta region, TDM helps create a most efficient system that moves people with the goal of reducing congestion, improving air quality, and stimulating economic activity. ARC's Mobility Services + Georgia Commute Options will provide an update on TDM Strategies taking place in local communities.
3. Regional Snapshot: Metro Atlanta Speaks Jim Skinner, ARC
ARC's seventh annual Metro Atlanta Speaks (MAS) public opinion survey was completed in late August. This regional snapshot explores surveyed residents' perceptions about transportation, the economy, quality of life, and civic engagement- providing an emphasis (this year) on the findings from new questions in the topic areas of housing and workforce. Mr. Skinner will provide a summary of the 2019 survey results.
4. Regional Housing Strategy Update Marisa Ghani, ARC
Beginning in 2018, ARC staff have worked to develop the Metro Atlanta Housing Strategy. One of the primary goals of the strategy is to create an online-data driven tool to help local governments and regional leaders better understand and address their housing challenges. Ms. Ghani is leading this work on behalf of the Community Development Group and will present the current status of the strategy.
5. Sustainable Connections Internship Program Crystal Jackson, ARC
The Sustainable Connections Internship Program (SCIP) is designed to connect university students in the Atlanta region with local governments and nonprofits in need of sustainability programming assistance. Ms. Jackson will give an update on the 2019-2020 SCIP intern cohort and their projects.
6. Other and Committee Introduced Topics Group
7. Announcements Chair
