The screenshot shows the Civic Dinners website interface. At the top left is the 'CIVIC DINNERS BETA' logo. On the top right are links for 'ABOUT', 'LOG IN', and 'SIGN UP'. The main heading is 'Reimagine Aging'. Below it is the tagline: 'A conversation exploring how communities can be designed to meet the needs of residents of all ages and abilities.' To the right of this text is the ARC logo (Atlanta Regional Commission) with the text 'PARTNER: ARC ATLANTA REGIONAL COMMISSION'. Below the tagline is a paragraph of text: 'By 2030, one in four residents in Metro Atlanta will be over the age of 60. Allowing people to age in their communities generally results in a better quality of life, with improved physical and mental health. Yet negative stereotypes about older persons have led to practices and policies that exclude older people from fully participating in our communities. The conversation about aging needs to change in order to make our communities work for all ages and abilities.' Below this text are three yellow buttons: 'ATTEND A DINNER', 'HOST A DINNER', and 'REQUEST AN INVITE'. At the bottom of the page is a section titled 'ABOUT THIS CONVERSATION' with a paragraph of text: 'Metro Atlanta's older adult population is growing rapidly as better health enables us to live longer. By 2030, one in five residents will be over the age of 60. This demographic shift presents an opportunity for the region to provide services and design communities in a way that meets the needs of residents of all ages and abilities. The Atlanta Regional Commission (ARC) plays a critical role in these
