

Natural Resources Activity Briefing

Lora Amedu
Natural Resources Division

Technical Assistance Program

- Helping communities plan projects, identify resources and develop strategies
- Provide assistance across sustainability and water resource planning areas
 - Green Communities
 - Water Supply and Water Conservation
 - Watershed Management
 - Wastewater and Septic Management

Technical Assistance Program

- Plan implementation guidance
- Facilitate intergovernmental groups
- Provide local government trainings
- Connect peer jurisdictions working on similar projects

NorthGeorgiaWater.org/TechnicalAssistance

STREAM Awards

for Programs and Projects of Excellence

15th Anniversary Winners
June 1, 2016

Water Supply and Water Conservation Program and Project of Excellence

Cobb County Water System

Green Cities Program

Wastewater and Septic Program and Project of Excellence

Clayton County Water Authority
Constructed Wetlands

Watershed/Stormwater Program and Project of Excellence

City of Alpharetta
Rock Mill Park

Watershed/Stormwater Program and Project of Excellence

City of Atlanta

Post-Development Stormwater Management Ordinance
Requiring Green Infrastructure

Education and Outreach Program and Project of Excellence

Henry County Water Authority, et al.
Cubihatcha Kids

Coordination Program and Project of Excellence

Cherokee County Water and Sewerage Authority, et al.

Allatoona Lake/Upper Etowah River Comprehensive Watershed Study

Water Reflections Calendar Contest

2016 Calendar Water Reflections

Call for Entries

2016 PHOTO CONTEST

*The Metro Water District Announces the 2016
Water Reflections Photo Contest*

DEADLINE FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 9TH

Georgia Stormwater Management Manual Trainings

- Technical Assistance Opportunities
 - Fall trainings for local planning, zoning, and development staff

GeorgiaStormwater.com