

Senior Rental Challenges

Approximately 55% of Douglas County renters age 65+ pay more than 30% of their income on housing. Housing is considered affordable if a person pays no more than 30% of their income on rent.

Older Adults in Douglas County

As of 2017, Douglas County was home to 16,680 adults age 65 or older, or 11.6% of the total population.³ 8,479 housing units in Douglas County are headed by a person 65+, and of these, 1,420 are rental units.¹

By 2040, the population of older adults in the metro Atlanta region is forecasted to more than double from the current levels.²

Rentals are Costly

Median monthly rent in Douglas County is:³

- $952/month for a 1-bedroom
- $882/month for a 2-bedroom

Cost of Living in Douglas County

The average median household income of people age 65+ in Douglas County is 25.5% lower than for all ages.¹ And almost one in three people 65+ have annual incomes of less than $23,512, which is considered very low income compared to the median income of $59,333 in Douglas County.¹

The chart below demonstrates the challenges of an individual 65+ living on the average mean social security income in Douglas County of $18,832 per year.^{1,4}

	Monthly
Average Finances for Douglas County Person Age 65+ with Average Social Security Income of $18,832/Year
Income	$1,569.33
Basic Living Expenses
1-Bedroom Median Rent (Douglas County)	$952.00
Food and Beverages	$508.33
Transportation	$609.67
Apparel, Personal Care Products, and Services	$140.08
Healthcare	$493.25
Life and Other Personal Insurance	$207.58
Remainder of Income for Other Expenses*	-$1,341.58

* An average person age 65+ in the South actually spends $516.33 on "other" expenses, which can include emergencies, home supplies, entertainment, etc.

Healthcare includes health insurance, medical services, drugs, and medical supplies.

Affordable Housing is Limited

Of the 16,135 total units for rent in Douglas County, only 16.9%, or 2,734 units, of any size (studio, 1-bedroom, 2-bedroom, and 3+ bedrooms) cost under $750 a month – not nearly enough to meet the needs of the rapidly growing population.¹

Furthermore, given that more than one in five (or 21% of) renters age 65+ in Douglas County do not have access to a vehicle, and 6.86% of all renters do not have access to a vehicle, there is a need for rental housing to be located near services and transportation options.¹

LOCAL SOLUTIONS

Policies must be implemented that encourage the development of a mix of housing types within existing communities, at a variety of price points. Zoning regulations should be written to allow homes to be built in close proximity to the services that enable people to remain independent as they age.

- » Does your city/county provide incentives (e.g., tax breaks, fee-waivers) to encourage the development of affordable and supportive housing units?
- » Do your city's and/or county's zoning regulations allow for a diversity of housing types and options (e.g. secondary units on one property)?
- » Do your city's and/or county's development codes encourage universal design elements (e.g., no step entries, wider doorways) to allow for a diversity of housing types and options?
- » Does your city/county permit access to basic services within walking distance of residences?
- » Does your community require a certain percentage of new housing developments to include affordable units?

¹ U.S. Census Bureau 2017 American Community Survey five year estimates for 2013-2017.

² Atlanta Regional Commission population projections.

³ U.S. Census Bureau 2017 American Community Survey one year estimates. Rent is the contract rent plus the estimated average monthly cost of utilities (electricity, gas, and water and sewer) and fuels (oil, coal, kerosene, wood, etc.). Gross rent is intended to eliminate differentials that result from varying practices with respect to the inclusion of utilities and fuels as part of the rental payment.

⁴ U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics Consumer Expenditure Survey 2016-2017, average annual and expenditures and characteristics for person age 65 and older living in South region of United States.

Contact information

Mary Blumberg at 470.378.1668 or mblumberg@atlantaregional.org
For housing assistance: 404.463.3333 or empowerline.org