

Planning for Resilient Communities

When: Friday, December 15th, 8:30AM - Noon

Where: ARC Conference Center, 299 Peachtree Street NE; International Tower Suite 100; Harry West Rooms

Agenda

8:30 – 9:00 Networking – coffee and donuts

9:00 - 9:15 Introductions and purpose, David D’Onofrio and Michael Meyer

9:15 – 10:00 David D’Onofrio and Michael Meyer, Introduction to System Resilience

- Definition and Benefits of Planning Ahead
- Hazards and Impacts for the Atlanta Region
- Examples from Across the Country

10:00 – 10:30 John Hibbard, Director of Operations, GDOT, Responding to (and Learning from) Transportation System Disruptions

10:30 – 10:45 Break

10:45 – 11:30 Presentation of ARC Vulnerability Assessment Framework and Next Steps, Michael Meyer, Claudia Bilotto, Denise Grabowski

- Incorporating Resilience into Regional & Local Planning
- Application to Different Transportation Modes
- Linkages to Planning Decision-Making

11:30 – 11:55 Paul Schramm, CDC – Climate Resilience and Public Health

11:55 – Noon Wrap Up