

Racial Equity Training

Questions and Answers

1. How many participants will attend?

The number of attendees has not been confirmed, though we plan on a group of between 25-30 individuals.

2. What will be the mix of diversity of the participants?

We do not have a confirmed group at this time, as the dates for the training have not yet been set. A diverse group of individuals has expressed interest in the training to this point.

3. Is there a location determined?

A location has not yet been confirmed, though the Atlanta Regional Commission's offices would be a priority training space if it is available for the training dates.

4. Who will cover the cost of the venue and food?

The Atlanta Regional Commission will cover the cost of the venue and food.

5. Are the April training dates already set? Is there any flexibility to hold the training in May?

The training dates are not already set. It is our desire to hold the training in April, but May is also a possibility. The training must take place before the third week of May.
